

Sample Staff Training Goals....

- Improve understanding of sensory processing disorder and explain how it affects interacting in different settings.
- Learn about the disability rights movement, provide examples of activism, as it relates to the person supported.
- Identify and apply nonverbal communication tools with the person supported.
- Learn about the person's specific medical diagnoses, complications and behavioral implications.
- Learn about Person First Language and how people see people with disabilities.